the inmate. Situations when an appropriate amount of force may be warranted include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Defense or protection of self or others;
- (2) Enforcement of institutional regulations; and
- (3) The prevention of a crime or apprehension of one who has committed a crime.
- (d) Where immediate use of restraints is indicated, staff may temporarily apply such restraints to an inmate to prevent that inmate from hurting self, staff, or others, and/or to prevent serious property damage. When the temporary application of restraints is determined necessary, and after staff have gained control of the inmate, the Warden or designee is to be notified immediately for a decision on whether the use of restraints should continue.
- (e) Staff may apply restraints (for example, handcuffs) to the inmate who continues to resist after staff achieve physical control of that inmate, and may apply restraints to any inmate who is placed under control by the Use of Force Team Technique. If an inmate in a forcible restraint situation refuses to move to another area on his own, staff may physically move that inmate by lifting and carrying the inmate to the appropriate destination.
- (f) Restraints should remain on the inmate until self-control is regained.
- (g) Except when the immediate use of restraints is required for control of the inmate, staff may apply restraints to, or continue the use of progressive restraints on, an inmate while in a cell in administrative detention or disciplinary segregation only with approval of the Warden or designee.
- (h) Restraint equipment or devices (e.g., handcuffs) may not be used in any of the following ways:
- (1) As a method of punishing an inmate.
- (2) About an inmate's neck or face, or in any manner which restricts blood circulation or obstructs the inmate's airways.
- (3) In a manner that causes unnecessary physical pain or extreme discomfort.
- (4) To secure an inmate to a fixed object, such as a cell door or cell grill, except as provided in §552.24.

- (i) Medication may not be used as a restraint solely for security purposes.
- (j) All incidents involving the use of force and the application of restraints (as specified in §552.27) must be carefully documented.

§ 552.23 Confrontation avoidance procedures.

Prior to any calculated use of force, the ranking custodial official (ordinarily the Captain or shift Lieutenant), a designated mental health professional, and others shall confer and gather pertinent information about the inmate and the immediate situation. Based on their assessment of that information, they shall identify a staff member(s) to attempt to obtain the inmate's voluntary cooperation and, using the knowledge they have gained about the inmate and the incident, determine if use of force is necessary.

§552.24 Use of four-point restraints.

When the Warden determines that four-point restraints are the only means available to obtain and maintain control over an inmate, the following procedures must be followed:

- (a) Soft restraints (e.g., vinyl) must be used to restrain an inmate, unless:
- (1) Such restraints previously have proven ineffective with respect to that inmate, or
- (2) Such restraints are proven ineffective during the initial application procedure.
- (b) Inmates will be dressed in clothing appropriate to the temperature.
- (c) Beds will be covered with a mattress, and a blanket/sheet will be provided to the inmate.
- (d) Staff shall check the inmate at least every 15 minutes, both to ensure that the restraints are not hampering circulation and for the general welfare of the inmate. When an inmate is restrained to a bed, staff shall periodically rotate the inmate's position to avoid soreness or stiffness.
- (e) A review of the inmate's placement in four-point restraints shall be made by a Lieutenant every two hours to determine if the use of restraints
